MESS UNIFORM JACKET

Worn by Command Sgt. Maj. Michael O. Howley, who served as the 4th State Command Sergeant Major of the Ohio Army National Guard from 1996 to 2001. Howley enlisted in the 145th Infantry in 1966 and served with the organization until it was reorganized as the 3d Squadron, 107th Armored Cavalry in 1974.

The Blue Mess Uniform is the most formal uniform worn by Army personnel and equates to the civilian "white tie and tails." The uniform is worn for formal social and private functions held after retreat.
