Ohio Amvets and the Ohio National Guard Join Forces for the Inauguration of the Ohio Veterans Career Assistance Network

COLUMBUS, Ohio - AMVETS (American Veterans) Department of Ohio, in partnership with the Ohio Air and Army National Guard announce the opening of a veteran friendly web site, www.ohiovetscan.com. Phase one is set to open on Patriots Day, September 11, 2008 and will consist of the website listing veteran friendly employers on the website. Phase one will include links to employer websites, contact information and if available, job openings. Phase two will allow veterans, National Guard, reservists and members of the active duty components to have their resumes posted on the site and is scheduled to be active on the website by Veterans Day, November 11, 2008. Phase three will be a statewide marketing effort to make employers and veterans of www.ohiovetscan.com. Phase three goal is to be operational on Pearl Harbor Day, Dec. 7, 2008. Phase four will be a fully automated site that will allow all veterans and employers to post and update their information as the need arises. Phase four is scheduled to be operation in early spring 2009.

Ohio has a wealth of talent honed by vast military experience. We are privileged to have many corporations that recognize the talents and sacrifices made by the men and women of our Armed Forces. These companies are the veteran friendly corporations targeted by the Ohiovetscan website.
