Ohio Army National Guard unit to return home from deployment

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Maj. Gen. Gregory L. Wayt, Ohio adjutant general, will honor about 150 Citizen-Soldiers of the Ohio Army National Guard's 135th Military Police Company, that are scheduled to return from active duty this month in support of the Global war on Terror.

The public is invited to the unit's welcome home ceremony at 5:00 p.m., Sun., Oct 18, at Kenston High School, 9500 Bainbridge Rd. Chagrin Falls, OH 44023.

The unit spent the last year in Baghdad and accomplished many missions to include conducting over 800 combat patrols, convoy security, trained over 3500 Iraqi Police on police competencies and assisted Iraqi Police in the seizure of multiple caches of munitions.

"I am extremely proud of what our Soldiers accomplished during this yearlong deployment", said Capt. David Lane, company commander.
