Senior Bowl II

COLUMBUS, Ohio— The helmets that Ohio Army National Guard Capt. Brandon Godsey's team normally wear are made of Kevlar and covered in the Army's digital camouflage pattern. Saturday, his team will be wearing helmets showcasing various college football team colors.

"I'm very excited to be part of Senior Bowl II, and coaching with four other Soldiers as special teams coaches is a huge honor," said Godsey, a former San Francisco 49er and current ROTC recruiter.

College seniors from across Ohio are divided into North and South teams and will be playing a final game before they graduate this spring. The teams will be playing for a championship trophy provided by the Guard.

Senior Bowl II is scheduled for 5 p.m. April 23, 2011, at Columbus Crew Stadium. The www.ohiocollegefootball.com Senior Bowl II has been created to showcase some of the best college football players in the state. The game will feature 85 of the top college football players from the National Collegiate Athletic Association divisions I-A, II and III, as well as the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Pre-game activities include interactive military displays and live entertainment.
