Ohio Cyber Range cybersecurity challenge set for Franklin University

- WHAT: Franklin University will host a cyber capture the flag event as part of the Ohio Cyber Collaboration Committee's (OC3) Cyber Range. The event will test students' skills at defending against cyberattacks.
- Media availability and an opportunity to observe students during the competition will follow the opening remarks.
- WHEN: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday, May 22, 2018. Opening remarks will begin at 10 a.m.
- WHERE: Franklin University, Frasci Hall, 201 S. Grant Ave., Columbus, Ohio 43215
- BACKGROUND: OC3, a collaborative effort of more than 100 public, private, military and educational organizations led by the Ohio National Guard, was initiated by Gov. John Kasich to develop a stronger cybersecurity infrastructure and provide innovative training and education to strengthen Ohio's cyber workforce. The OC3 Cyber Range is a virtual training ground accessible for competitions, training and as a testing environment for schools, governments and businesses.
- During the daylong capture the flag event, high school and college students will work to solve a series of real-world scenarios to test their technical skills and knowledge of cybersecurity. They can retrieve virtual flags when they successfully solve the challenges, and top finishers will receive special recognition.
