Top Army environmental award to be presented at Camp Ravenna Joint Military Training Center

WHAT: The Ohio National Guard will host an award ceremony at Camp Ravenna Joint Military Training Center. Eugene Collins, Army deputy assistant secretary for environment, safety and occupational health, will present the Secretary of the Army Environmental Award for the environmental restoration program at Camp Ravenna.

WHEN: 11:45 a.m. Wednesday, June 13, 2018.

WHERE: Camp Ravenna Joint Military Training Center, 8451 state Route 5, Ravenna, Ohio 44266.

BACKGROUND: It was announced earlier this year that the environmental restoration efforts at Camp Ravenna Joint Military Training Center had earned the Secretary of the Army Environmental Award in the environmental restoration, individual/team category. The award will officially be presented at a recently completed weapons range in an area that was formerly used for munitions disposal and required environmental cleanup.

Camp Ravenna is an Ohio Army National Guard training site located in Portage and Trumbull counties. The installation consists of about 21,000 acres, with various small arms weapons ranges and permanent facilities to support weekend and annual training events.

NEWSROOM NOTE: Please submit names of media members planning to attend and their contact information by 10 a.m. Tuesday, June 12, 2018, to Stephanie Beougher, public information officer, at 614-336-7369 or stephanie.k.beougher.nfg@mail.mil.

On the day of the event, media should plan to arrive by no later than 11 a.m. to allow sufficient time to get through security and to be escorted to the event location. Please have a valid driver's license or media credentials.
