

THROUGH THE LENS

JANUARY 1994

CAMP ROBINSON, ARK.

The Ohio National Guard team wins first place in the light machine gun aggregate competition at the Fourth Army matches held at Camp Robinson, Ark. From left, pictured are team members Spc. Frank Montini, Sgt. Joseph Gild, Spc. Steve Yoders and Spc. Patrick Cooney.

WEEK IN REVIEW

JANUARY 13, 1947: Thomas J. Herbert is inaugurated as the 56th Governor of Ohio. Herbert, a former lieutenant colonel in the Ohio National Guard, was the first commander of the 112th Observation Squadron, 37th Division Aviation. He is the last Ohio governor to have served in the Ohio National Guard. READ MORE: HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHT

JANUARY 15, 1952: The 37th Infantry Division is ordered into active federal service for the Korean War and sent to Camp Polk, La. for training.

JANUARY 16, 1993: The 121st Fighter Wing is redesignated as the 121st Air Refueling Wing.

JANUARY 17, 1991: Operation Desert Storm, the combat phase of the Gulf War, begins with five weeks of aerial and naval bombardment on Iraqi forces and infrastructure. More than 1,600 Ohio Soldiers and Airmen deployed in support of these operations.

CONNECTING TO THE COLLECTIONS

GUIDON, 1485TH TRANSPORTATION COMPANY OPERATION DESERT STORM

This guidon was used by the 1485th Transportation Company during its mobilization for Operation Desert Shield/Storm in 1990-91. The company was stationed in Dover, Ohio at the time. The guidon is a swallow-tailed device made of wool bunting cloth. It is brick red with yellow insignia and lettering. Brick red and yellow are the branch colors of the Army Transportation Corps. The branch insignia is above the unit numerals, 1485.

A LOOK IN THE ATTIC
THIS WEEK IN OHIO NATIONAL GUARD HISTORY

Follow the Ohio National Guard Heritage Center @

POC: SFC Joshua Mann, 614-336-7311 or joshua.d.mann.mil@army.mil