The Ohio Army National Guard deploys the 37th Infantry Brigade Combat Team

COLUMBUS — Headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, the 37th Infantry Brigade Combat Team (IBCT) has begun preparations to deploy in early 2008 to Southwest Asia in support of the Global War on Terror. The attached pdf form lists each of the Ohio units that comprise the 37th IBCT, where they are located, plus the current date, time and location of each deployment ceremony. For now, we do not have the exact times, but have the city each event will occur plus the tentative morning or afternoon event time.

Through the Army transformation process, the "Dragon Brigade" is now comprised of Citizen-Soldiers from Ohio and Michigan and will deploy for the first time as a modular brigade combat team formation.

We will provide updates on Nov. 26, Dec. 10, Dec. 24, with final information sent out no later than Jan. 2, 2008.
