Ohio National Guard transportation unit to return from deployment

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Ohio National Guard will welcome home 160 Soldiers from the 1487th Transportation Company during a 3 p.m. ceremony Friday, Oct. 4 at Piqua High School, 1 Indian Trail, Piqua, Ohio 45356.

The 1487th Transportation Company was responsible for planning, synchronizing and executing tactical supply, sustainment and transportation operations throughout Regional Command South in Afghanistan. The 1487th replaced the 1486th Transportation Company out of Mansfield, Ohio, which performed the same mission the previous year during that unit's deployment in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

Previous deployments for the 1487th include Operation Desert Storm (1990) and Operation Iraqi Freedom (2004).
