

2nd Lt. Stephen C. Reid

Company D, 1-148th Infantry Regiment ~ Sandusky

Second Lt. Stephen C. Reid was born in Allen County and currently resides in Franklin County, where he works as a political aide and a personal trainer in the civilian world. He joined the National Guard for the same reasons as most who raise their hands and take the oath. “I joined the Guard to serve my country and also help pay for college,” he said. Now on state active duty serving his fellow Ohioans during the COVID-19 pandemic, Reid says the mission has given him the opportunity “to directly serve the people of Ohio.”

Second Lt. Stephen C. Reid is currently on state active duty, serving as officer in charge of the Ohio National Guard team supporting the Toledo Northwestern Ohio Food Bank.

Ohioans serving Ohioans

Ohio National Guard Soldiers and Airmen are members of your community. They are local students, teachers, law enforcement, retail workers, business owners, your co-workers, family, friends and neighbors. When the Ohio National Guard responds to an emergency or natural disaster, it's Ohioans serving Ohioans right in their own communities. In this series, meet some of the front-line heroes serving during the current COVID-19 relief efforts, as well as a few of our members who've supported past humanitarian missions.
