

Spc. Charles Moore

Battery C, 1st Battalion, 134th Field Artillery Regiment ~ Marysville-2

Moore, who currently resides in Franklin County, said he joined the Ohio National Guard “to give back to those who have served before me.” Moore currently attends Bowling Green State University as a full-time student. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Moore is providing food packaging and distribution support to the Urban Mission food pantry in Steubenville, Ohio. He said the most rewarding part of supporting the mission has been “seeing the impact a group of people can make on a community.”

Spc. Charles Moore is supporting food packaging and distribution operations at the Urban Mission food pantry in Steubenville, Ohio during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Ohioans serving Ohioans

Ohio National Guard Soldiers and Airmen are members of your community. They are local students, teachers, law enforcement, retail workers, business owners, your co-workers, family, friends and neighbors. When the Ohio National Guard responds to an emergency or natural disaster, it's Ohioans serving Ohioans right in their own communities. In this series, meet some of the front-line heroes serving during the current COVID-19 relief efforts, as well as a few of our members who've supported past humanitarian missions.