

Pfc. Jamsheed Morquecho

Battery C, 1st Battalion, 134th Field Artillery Regiment ~ Marysville

Morquecho normally works as an Amazon delivery driver, but because of the current health crisis, his company has experienced a reduction in the volume of business and hours available to work. Growing up in Montgomery County, Morquecho ended up joining the National Guard so he could serve his community and country. “Being able to see the smile on people’s faces when handing them food at distributions has been the most rewarding part of being activated.”

Pfc Jamsheed Morquecho is supporting food packaging and distribution operations at the Southeast Ohio Foodbank in Logan, Ohio during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Ohioans serving Ohioans

Ohio National Guard Soldiers and Airmen are members of your community. They are local students, teachers, law enforcement, retail workers, business owners, your co-workers, family, friends and neighbors. When the Ohio National Guard responds to an emergency or natural disaster, it's Ohioans serving Ohioans right in their own communities. In this series, meet some of the front-line heroes serving during the current COVID-19 relief efforts, as well as a few of our members who've supported past humanitarian missions.
