CONNECTING TO THE COLLECTIONS

ORGANIZATIONAL COLORS SUPPORT SQUADRON, 107TH ARMORED CAVALRY

The Support Squadron, 107th Armored Cavalry used this flag between 1987 and 1993. The flag background is yellow for cavalry and includes an embroidered American eagle with the coat of arms of the regiment on the breast. The heraldic description reads: The shield is yellow for Cavalry. The bend charged with the alerions, taken from the arms of Lorraine, is representative of World War I service and is red to indicate that the 107th Cavalry served as field artillery during World War I. The Roman Sword in sheath is for Spanish-American War service and the cactus for Mexican Border duty. The eagle's beak grasps a white scroll inscribed with the unit motto, "Facre Non Decere," which is translated as "To Act, Not To Speak."
